Fear of power ban: Discom dues dip 1% in 5 months

New Delhi: After months of negotiations, however, transmission utilities and power distribution companies (discoms) have finally agreed on a formula to narrow the country’s growing power sector deficit. Under the agreement, the utilities will have to pay their dues to the power ministry by July 31, 2023, in equal monthly instalments. The ministry has already set aside Rs 3.52 lakh crore in a special fund for these purposes.

The 14-Yr-Old

In today’s digital age, the use of social media has become a common platform for expressing thoughts and opinions. However, it is important to remember that what we post online can have a significant impact on our reputation and future opportunities. For example, negative comments or images can lead to disciplinary actions or even affect hiring decisions.

New Delhi,

October 17, 2022

SIR,

I am directed to refer to your letter No. WPS/PA/1927/084/1927, dated October 11, 2022.

The Department has received an application from your office for sanction of a single frequency for the purpose of generating a digital terrestrial signal, in the 470 MHz - 808 MHz frequency band, for broadcasting a television programme on a channel in the area of your city.

The Department has examined the matter and is of the opinion that the requirements of the aforesaid application are in conformity with the provisions of the relevant rules and regulations.

The Department is, therefore, pleased to grant the above sanction.

The power of the authority to consider and decide all related matters is also, in this regard, reserved with the Department.

Yours faithfully,
