

RSIL

FAIR PRACTICES CODE

The Fair Practices Code (FPC) has been formulated and adopted by Reliance Strategic Investments Limited (RSIL) as an affirmation of its values and commitment towards transparency and fairness in its dealings with its customers. The FPC incorporates all applicable guidelines and instructions issued by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) from time to time (Ref: RBI Master Circular: RBI/2015-16/16 dated July 1, 2015). This code is applicable in respect of all services/ products/ loans and facilities etc. sourced or serviced by RSIL either directly or its business correspondents/ agents.

1. Objective of the Code:

This code has been adopted to encourage an ecosystem in which:

- A baseline for just and fair practices while carrying out business with customers are set,
- The business operates from a high moral ground,
- There is clarity for the customers regarding the services that they can expect,
- The organization's commitment to transparency and fairness in all customer dealings are internalized and evidenced.

2. Our Key Commitments and Declarations:

(a) RSIL shall provide assistance to the borrower to understand and interpret the financial schemes and products being offered and their appropriateness for individual or class of customers by making available information and appropriate disclosures in writing and orally in the languages understood by the customer. All such disclosures will also be made and periodically updated on the Company's website.

(b) Accurate and timely information with respect to terms and conditions, costs, rights and liabilities shall be provided.

(c) RSIL shall promptly redress any customer complaint within timelines committed under its grievance redressal mechanism.

3. Non-Discrimination Policy

The Company will not discriminate between customers on the basis of gender, race, caste, creed or religion.

4. Confidentiality:

All information provided by the customer shall be dealt with as confidential and private, unless it is otherwise explicitly disclosed and acknowledged by the customer.

Exceptional Circumstances:

- To provide the information if required under statute or regulation,
- Mandated duty to reveal the information to the public,
- If the Company is required to provide this information (e.g. fraud prevention) to Banks / Financial Institutions / Our Group and Associate Companies providing Business Support services,
- The Company will not use this reason for giving information about customers to anyone else for marketing purposes.

5. Loan LifeCycle:

(i) Applications for loans and their processing

(a) All communications to the borrower shall be in the vernacular language or a language as understood by the borrower.

(b) Loan application forms will include necessary information which affects the interest of the borrower, so that a meaningful comparison with the terms and conditions offered by other NBFCs can be made and informed decision can be taken by the borrower.

(c) The loan application form shall indicate the documents required to be submitted with the application form including processing fees or any other fees, if any, and the extent to which these fees are refundable or not in the event the loan is not sanctioned or the customer declines the facility.

(d) RSIL will devise a system of giving acknowledgement for receipt of all loan applications. The time frame within which loan applications will be disposed of will also be indicated in the acknowledgement.

(ii) Loan appraisal and terms/conditions

RSIL shall convey in writing to the borrower in the vernacular or the language as understood by the borrower by means of sanction letter or otherwise, the amount of loan sanctioned along with the terms and conditions including annualised rate of interest and method of application thereof and keep the acceptance of these terms and conditions by the borrower on its record. RSIL shall mention the penal interest charged for late repayment and pre-closure charges/ penalty in bold in the loan agreement. RSIL, however, shall not levy prepayment charges/ penalty on floating rate loans granted to individuals.

RSIL shall furnish a copy of the loan agreement preferably in the vernacular language as understood by the borrower along with a copy each of all enclosures quoted in the loan agreement to all the borrowers at the time of sanction / disbursement of loans.

In case of loans secured by any property, the terms and conditions of the loan agreement will contain provisions regarding: (a) notice period before taking possession of security in case of default; (b) circumstances under which the notice period can be waived; (c) the procedure for taking possession of the security; (d) a provision regarding final chance to be given to the borrower for repayment of loan before the sale / auction of the property; (e) the procedure for giving repossession to the borrower; and (f) the procedure for sale / auction of the property

(iii) Disbursement of loans including changes in terms and conditions

(a) RSIL shall give notice to the borrower in the vernacular language as understood by the borrower of any change in the terms and conditions including disbursement schedule, interest rates, service charges, prepayment charges etc. RSIL shall also ensure that changes in interest rates and charges are effected only prospectively. A suitable condition in this regard shall be incorporated in the loan agreement.

(b) Decision to recall / accelerate payment or performance under the agreement shall be in consonance with the loan agreement.

(c) RSIL shall release all securities on repayment of all dues or on realization of the outstanding amount of loan subject to any legitimate right or lien for any other claim RSIL may have against borrower. If such right of set off is to be exercised, the borrower shall be given notice about the same with full particulars about the remaining claims and the conditions under which RSIL is entitled to retain the securities till the relevant claim is settled/paid.

(iv) General

(a) RSIL shall refrain from interference in the affairs of the borrower except for the purposes provided in the terms and conditions of the loan agreement (unless new information, not earlier disclosed by the borrower, has come to the notice of RSIL).

(b) In case of receipt of request from the borrower for transfer of borrowal account, the consent or otherwise i.e. objection of RSIL, if any, shall be conveyed within 21 days from the date of receipt of request. Such transfer shall be as per transparent contractual terms in consonance with law.

(c) In the matter of recovery of loans, RSIL shall not resort to undue harassment viz. persistently bothering the borrowers at odd hours, use of muscle power for recovery of loans etc. As complaints from customers also include rude behavior from the staff of the companies. RSIL shall ensure that the staff are adequately trained to deal with the customers in an appropriate manner.

(d) The Board of Directors of RSIL has laid down and shall periodically review the appropriateness of the grievance redressal mechanism within the organization to resolve disputes arising in this regard. Such a mechanism shall ensure that all disputes arising out of the decisions of RSIL functionaries or its agents are heard and disposed of at least at the next higher level. The Board of Directors shall also periodically review the compliance of the Fair Practices Code and the functioning of the grievances redressal mechanism at various levels of management. A consolidated report of such reviews may be submitted to the Board at regular intervals, as may be prescribed by it.

(vii) Regulation of excessive interest

(a) The Board of RSIL shall adopt an interest rate model taking into account relevant factors such as, cost of funds, margin and risk premium, etc and determine the rate of interest to be charged for loans and advances. The rate of interest and the approach for gradations of risk and rationale for charging different rate of interest to different categories of borrowers shall be disclosed to the borrower or customer in the application form and communicated explicitly in the sanction letter.

(b) RSIL shall make available on its website the rates of interest and the approach for gradation of risks applicable for its loan customers. The information published in the website or otherwise published shall be updated whenever there is a change in the rates of interest.

(c) The rate of interest shall be annualised rates so that the borrower is aware of the exact rates that would be charged to the account.

(d) There shall be no penalty for prepayment/foreclosure for floating rate loans to individuals.

6. Grievance Redressal Mechanism:

(a) RSIL has established a grievance redressal mechanism within the organization. It comprises of Business Heads, Heads of Risk and Collections and Heads of Operations to resolve service quality disputes or disputes arising in regard to adherence to the Fair Practices Code.

(b) There would be a periodical review of compliance with the Fair Practices Code and functioning of the grievances redressal mechanism at various levels of management. A consolidated report of such reviews would be submitted to the Board at regular intervals.

(c) In case of consumer financing through dealers, the name of the Company as financing partners as well following information shall be displayed, for the benefit of the customers, on the website of the dealers:

The name of the Nodal Officer (Grievance Redressal Officer) who can be approached for resolution of complaints against the Company: Ashoo Mote
Contact details Telephone No. +91 22 79670619
Email address: ashoo.mote@ril.com or nodalofficer.rsil@ril.com

(d) The name and contact details for any grievance expressed by the customer shall also be displayed at all places where the Company is doing business. The customer would require to express the issue over either of the communication channels and the expected resolution of the matter shall be 30 days from the received communication.

RSIL shall abide by the Fair Practices Code and uphold the spirit of the Code. A copy of the Code shall be displayed on the Company's website.

(e) If the complaint / dispute is not redressed within a period of one month, the customer may take up the complaint with the Reserve Bank- Integrated Ombudsman Scheme, 2021 (details available in Annexure), if they are still not satisfied.

However, for any consequential loss suffered by the complainant, the Ombudsman shall have the power to provide a compensation up to Rupees 20 lakh, in addition to, up to Rupees One lakh for the loss of the complainant's time, expenses incurred and for harassment/mental anguish suffered by the complainant.

(3) While the Ombudsman shall have the power to address and close all complaints, the Deputy Ombudsman shall have the power to close those complaints falling under "Grounds for non-maintainability of a Compliant" clause and complaints settled through facilitation as stated under "Resolution of Complaints" clause.

(4) The Ombudsman shall send to the Deputy Governor, Reserve Bank of India, a report, as on March 31st every year, containing a general review of the activities of the office during the preceding financial year, and shall furnish such other information as the Reserve Bank may direct.

(5) The Reserve Bank may, if it considers necessary in the public interest to do so, publish the report and the information received from the Ombudsman in such consolidated form or otherwise, as it may deem fit.

CHAPTER IV

PROCEDURE FOR REDRESSAL OF GRIEVANCE UNDER THE SCHEME

7. Grounds of Complaint

Any customer aggrieved by an act or omission of the Company resulting in deficiency in service may file a complaint under the Scheme personally or through an authorised representative as defined under clause 3(1)(c).

8. Grounds for non-maintainability of a Complaint

(1) No complaint for deficiency in service shall lie under the Scheme in matters involving:

- (a) commercial judgment/commercial decision of the Company;
- (b) a dispute between a vendor and the Company relating to an outsourcing contract;
- (c) a grievance not addressed to the Ombudsman directly;
- (d) general grievances against Management or Executives of the Company;
- (e) a dispute in which action is initiated by the Company in compliance with the orders of a statutory or law enforcing authority;
- (f) a service not within the regulatory purview of the Reserve Bank;
- (g) a dispute between Regulated Entities; and
- (h) a dispute involving the employee-employer relationship of the Company.

(2) A complaint under the Scheme shall not lie unless:

(a) the complainant had, before making a complaint under the Scheme, made a written complaint to the Company and -

(i) the complaint was rejected wholly or partly by the Company, and the complainant is not satisfied with the reply; or the complainant had not received any reply within 30 days after the Company received the complaint; and

(ii) the complaint is made to the Ombudsman within one year after the complainant has received the reply from the Company to the complaint or, where no reply is received, within one year and 30 days from the date of the complaint.

(b) the complaint is not in respect of the same cause of action which is already-

(i) pending before an Ombudsman or settled or dealt with on merits, by an Ombudsman, whether or not received from the same complainant or along with one or more complainants, or one or more of the parties concerned;

(ii) pending before any Court, Tribunal or Arbitrator or any other Forum or Authority; or, settled or dealt with on merits, by any Court, Tribunal or Arbitrator or any other Forum or Authority, whether or not received from the same complainant or along with one or more of the complainants/parties concerned;

(c) the complaint is not abusive or frivolous or vexatious in nature;

(d) the complaint to the Company was made before the expiry of the period of limitation prescribed under the Limitation Act, 1963, for such claims;

(e) the complainant provides complete information as specified in “Procedure for Filing a Complaint” clause;

(f) the complaint is lodged by the complainant personally or through an authorised representative other than an advocate unless the advocate is the aggrieved person.

Explanation 1: ‘Written complaint’ shall include complaints made through other modes where proof of having made a complaint can be produced by the complainant.

Explanation 2: For the purposes of sub-clause (2)(b)(ii), a complaint in respect of the same cause of action does not include criminal proceedings pending or decided before a Court or Tribunal or any police investigation initiated in a criminal offence.

9. Procedure for Filing a Complaint

(1) The complaint may be lodged online through the portal designed for the purpose (<https://cms.rbi.org.in>).

(2) The complaint may also be submitted through electronic or physical mode to the Centralised Receipt and Processing Centre as notified by the Reserve Bank. The complaint, if submitted in physical form, shall be duly signed by the complainant or by the authorised representative. The complaint shall be submitted in electronic or physical mode in such format and containing such information as may be specified by Reserve Bank.

10. Initial Scrutiny of Complaints

(1) Complaints which are in the nature of offering suggestions or seeking guidance or explanation shall not be treated as valid complaints under the Scheme and shall be closed accordingly with a suitable communication to the complainant.

(2) Complaints which are non-maintainable under “Grounds for non-maintainability of a Complaint” clause shall be separated to issue a suitable communication to the complainant.

(3) The remaining complaints shall be assigned to the offices of the Ombudsman for further examination under intimation to the complainant. A copy of the complaint shall also be forwarded to the Company against whom the complaint is filed with a direction to submit its written version.

11. Power to Call for Information

(1) The Ombudsman may, for the purpose of carrying out duties under this Scheme, require the Company against whom the complaint has been made or any other Regulated Entity which is a party to the dispute to provide any information or furnish certified copies of any document relating to the complaint which are or is alleged to be in its possession.

Provided that in the event of failure of the Company to comply with the requisition without sufficient cause, the Ombudsman may draw an inference that the Company has no information to furnish.

(2) The Ombudsman shall maintain confidentiality of the information or the documents coming to its knowledge or possession in the course of discharging duties and shall not disclose such information or documents to any person except as otherwise required by law, or with the consent of the person furnishing such information or documents.

Provided that nothing in this sub-clause shall prevent the Ombudsman from disclosing information or documents furnished by the parties to the proceedings to each other, to the extent considered necessary to comply with the principles of natural justice and fair play:

Provided further that provisions of this sub-clause shall not apply in relation to the disclosure made or information furnished by the Ombudsman to the Reserve Bank or filing thereof before any Court, Forum or Authority.

12. Resolution of Complaints

(1) The Ombudsman/Deputy Ombudsman shall endeavour to promote settlement of a complaint by agreement between the complainant and the Company through facilitation or conciliation or mediation.

(2) The proceedings before the Ombudsman shall be summary in nature and shall not be bound by any rules of evidence. The Ombudsman may examine either party to the complaint and record their statement.

(3) The Company shall, on receipt of the complaint, file its written version in reply to the averments in the complaint enclosing therewith copies of the documents relied upon, within 15 days before the Ombudsman for resolution.

Provided that the Ombudsman may, at the request of the Company in writing to the satisfaction of the Ombudsman, grant such further time as may be deemed fit to file its written version and documents.

(4) In case the Company omits or fails to file its written version and documents within the time as provided in terms of sub-clause (3), the Ombudsman may proceed ex-parte based on the evidence available on record and pass appropriate Order or issue an Award. There shall be no right of appeal to the Company in respect of the Award issued on account of non-response or non-furnishing of information sought within the stipulated time.

(5) The Ombudsman/Deputy Ombudsman shall ensure that the written version or reply or documents filed by one party, to the extent relevant and pertaining to the complaint, are furnished to other party and follow such procedure and provide additional time as may be considered appropriate.

(6) In case the complaint is not resolved through facilitation, such action as may be considered appropriate, including a meeting of the complainant with the officials of the Company, for resolution of the complaint by conciliation or mediation may be initiated.

(7) The parties to the complaint shall cooperate in good faith with the Ombudsman/Deputy Ombudsman, as the case may be, in resolution of the dispute and comply with the direction for production of any evidence and other related documents within the stipulated time.

(8) If any amicable settlement of the complaint is arrived at between the parties, the same shall be recorded and signed by both the parties and thereafter, the fact of settlement may be recorded, annexing thereto the terms of settlement, directing the parties to comply with the terms within the stipulated time.

(9) The complaint would be deemed to be resolved when:

- (a) it has been settled by the Company with the complainant upon the intervention of the Ombudsman; or
- (b) the complainant has agreed in writing or otherwise (which may be recorded) that the manner and the extent of resolution of the grievance is satisfactory; or
- (c) the complainant has withdrawn the complaint voluntarily.

13. Award by the Ombudsman

(1) Unless the complaint is rejected under "Rejection of a Complaint" clause, the Ombudsman shall pass an Award in the event of:

- (a) non-furnishing of documents/information as enumerated in sub-clause 4 of "Resolution of Complaints" clause; or
- (b) the matter not getting resolved under sub-clause 9 of "Resolution of Complaints" clause based on records placed, and after affording a reasonable opportunity of being heard to both the parties.

(2) The Ombudsman shall also take into account, in addition, the principles of banking law and practice, directions, instructions and guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank from time to time and such other factors as may be relevant, before passing a reasoned Award.

(3) The Award shall contain, inter alia, the direction, if any, to the Company for specific performance of its obligations and in addition to or otherwise, the amount, if any, to be paid by the Company to the complainant by way of compensation for any loss suffered by the complainant.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (3), the Ombudsman shall not have the power to pass an Award directing payment by way of compensation, an amount which is more than the consequential loss suffered by the complainant or Rupees 20 lakh whichever is lower. The compensation that can be awarded by the Ombudsman shall be exclusive of the amount involved in the dispute.

(5) The Ombudsman may also award a compensation not exceeding Rupees one lakh to the complainant, taking into account the loss of the complainant's time, expenses incurred, harassment and mental anguish suffered by the complainant.

(6) A copy of the Award shall be sent to the complainant and the Company.

(7) The Award passed under sub-clause (1) shall lapse and be of no effect unless the complainant furnishes a letter of acceptance of the Award in full and final settlement of the claim to the Company, within a period of 30 days from the date of receipt of the copy of the Award.

Provided that no such acceptance may be furnished by the complainant if he has filed an appeal under sub-clause (3) of "Appeal before the Appellate Authority" clause.

(8) The Company shall comply with the Award and intimate compliance to the Ombudsman within 30 days from the date of receipt of the letter of acceptance from the complainant, unless it has preferred an appeal under sub-clause (2) of "Appeal before the Appellate Authority" clause.

14. Rejection of a Complaint

(1) The Deputy Ombudsman or the Ombudsman may reject a complaint at any stage if it appears that the complaint made:

- (a) is non-maintainable under "Grounds for non-maintainability of a Complaint" clause; or
- (b) is in the nature of offering suggestions or seeking guidance or explanation

(2) The Ombudsman may reject a complaint at any stage if:

(a) in his opinion there is no deficiency in service; or

(b) the compensation sought for the consequential loss is beyond the power of the Ombudsman to award the compensation as indicated in sub-clause (2) of “Powers and Functions” clause; or

(c) the complaint is not pursued by the complainant with reasonable diligence; or

(d) the complaint is without any sufficient cause; or

(e) the complaint requires consideration of elaborate documentary and oral evidence and the proceedings before the Ombudsman are not appropriate for adjudication of such complaint; or

(f) in the opinion of the Ombudsman there is no financial loss or damage, or inconvenience caused to the complainant.

15. Appeal before the Appellate Authority

(1) There shall not be any right of appeal to the Company for an Award issued for non-furnishing of documents/information under sub-clause (1)(a) of “Award by the Ombudsman” clause.

(2) The Company may, aggrieved by an Award under sub-clause (1)(b) of “Award by the Ombudsman” clause or closure of a complaint under sub-clauses (2)(c) to (2)(f) of “Rejection of a Complaint” clause, within 30 days of the date of receipt of communication of Award or closure of the complaint, prefer an appeal before the Appellate Authority.

(a) Provided that in the case of an appeal by the Company, the period of 30 days for filing an appeal shall commence from the date on which the Company receives the letter of acceptance of Award by the complainant:

(b) Provided further that an appeal may be filed by the Company only with the previous sanction of the Chairman or the Managing Director/Chief Executive Officer or, in their absence, the Executive Director/Official of equal rank.

(c) Provided that the Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the Company had sufficient cause for not making the appeal within the time, may allow a further period not exceeding 30 days.

(3) The complainant may, aggrieved by an Award under sub-clause (1) of “Award by the Ombudsman” clause or rejection of a complaint under sub-clauses (2)(c) to (2)(f) of “Rejection of a Complaint” clause, within 30 days of the date of receipt of the Award or rejection of the complaint, prefer an appeal before the Appellate Authority.

Provided that the Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the complainant had sufficient cause for not making the appeal within the time, may allow a further period not exceeding 30 days.

(4) The Appellate Authority's Secretariat shall scrutinise and process the Appeal.

(5) The Appellate Authority may, after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard:

(a) dismiss the appeal; or

(b) allow the appeal and set aside the Award or order of the Ombudsman; or

(c) remand the matter to the Ombudsman for fresh disposal in accordance with such directions as the Appellate Authority may consider necessary or proper; or

(d) modify the order of the Ombudsman or Award and pass such directions as may be necessary to give effect to the order of the Ombudsman or Award so modified; or

(e) pass any other order as it may deem fit.

(6) The order of the Appellate Authority shall have the same effect as the Award passed by Ombudsman under "Award by the Ombudsman" clause or the order rejecting the complaint under "Rejection of a Complaint" clause, as the case may be.

16. Display Salient Features of the Scheme for Knowledge of the Public

(1) The Company shall facilitate the smooth conduct of the Scheme by ensuring meticulous adherence to the requirements under the Scheme.

(2) The Company shall appoint a Principal Nodal Officer at their head office who shall not be a rank less than a General Manager or an officer of equivalent rank and shall be responsible for representing the Company and furnishing information on behalf of the Company in respect of complaints filed against the Company. The Company may appoint such other Nodal Officers to assist the Principal Nodal Officer as it may deem fit for operational efficiency.

(3) The Company shall display prominently for the benefit of their customers at their branches/places where the business is transacted, the name and contact details (Telephone/mobile number and E-mail ID) of the Principal Nodal Officer along with the details of the complaint lodging portal of the Ombudsman (<https://cms.rbi.org.in>).

(4) The Company shall ensure that the salient features of the Scheme are displayed prominently in English, Hindi and the regional language in all its offices, branches and places where the business is transacted in such a manner that a person visiting the office or branch has adequate information on the Scheme.

(5) The Company shall ensure that a copy of the Scheme is available in all its branches to be provided to the customer for reference upon request.

(6) The salient features of the Scheme along with the copy of the Scheme and the contact details of the Principal Nodal Officer shall be displayed and updated on the website.

CHAPTER V MISCELLANEOUS

17. Removal of Difficulties

If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of the Scheme, the Reserve Bank may make such provisions not inconsistent with the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, or the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, or the Payment and Settlement Systems Act, 2007, or the Scheme, as it may consider necessary or expedient for removing any difficulty.

18. Repeal of the Existing Schemes and Application to Pending Proceedings

(1) The Banking Ombudsman Scheme, 2006, the Ombudsman Scheme for Non-Banking Financial Companies, 2018, and the Ombudsman Scheme for Digital Transactions, 2019, hereby stand repealed.

(2) The adjudication of pending complaints, appeals and execution of the Awards already passed, as on the date of commencement of the Reserve Bank - Integrated Ombudsman Scheme, 2021, shall continue to be governed by the provisions of the respective Ombudsman Schemes and instructions of the Reserve Bank issued thereunder.

Note: Complaints to the Ombudsman can continue to be filed online on <https://cms.rbi.org.in>. Complaints can also be filed through the dedicated e-mail to crpc@rbi.org.in or sent in physical mode to the 'Centralised Receipt and Processing Centre', Reserve Bank of India, 4th Floor, Sector 17, Chandigarh - 160017 in the prescribed format.

A Contact Centre with a toll-free number – 14448 (9:30 am to 5:15 pm) – will provide information/clarifications regarding the alternate grievance redress mechanism of RBI and to guide complainants in filing of a complaint.
