DU forms panel to analyse admission trends

D U VC S A Y S  A call for the admission committee for the next academic year will be taken based on the panel’s recommendations next year. The panel will meet under the chairmanship of the pro-vice-chancellor and submit its report by August 30.

The committee will also carry out an investigation into the current practice of allowing admission in cases where the applicant does not meet the cut-off mark for admission in the college.

The committee’s report will be submitted to the DU executive council for approval.
