MUMBAI, OCT 22

SEVERAL THEATRES in Mumbai received a decent response on Friday, the first day of reopening and before bookings began. Innumerable booked shows turned up on the weekends of Diwali and the India-Pak match.

Theatres were closed on March 18 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Friday was a big day for the theatres as they were back in operation.

"We are happy to be back. The response has been overwhelming. Many shows are sold out, and our revenue is up," said a manager of a theatre in Lower Parel.

However, some small theatres in the city were not so fortunate. "We have only a few shows booked for the weekend," said a manager of a theatre in Andheri East.

The Mumbai Civic Theatre and the India-Pakistan match are back on the radar. "We are looking forward to the India-Pakistan match," said a manager of a theatre in Lower Parel.

Theatres are not the only ones looking forward to the match. "We are looking forward to the match," said a manager of a theatre in Andheri East.
