LS passes inter-services organisations bill

'Step Towards Integration Of Armed Forces'

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: The bill that seeks to empower military commanders of tri-service organisations with full administrative and disciplinary powers, and will pave the way for creation of integrated theatre commands (ITCs) in the coming months, was passed by the Lok Sabha on Friday. Defence minister Rajnath Singh said the Inter-Services Organisations (Command, Control & Discipline) Bill, 2023, is an "important step towards integration and jointness in the three wings of our armed forces so that they will be able to face the challenges of the future in a unified and integrated manner". The bill, which does not include additional financial implications, is part of a series of reforms being undertaken by the Modi government to strengthen the armed forces and national security, Singh added.

The bill comes ahead of the impending move to establish three ITCs, where in each of them all the manpower and assets of the Army, Navy and IAF will be under the operational control of a single commander-in-chief.

At present, military personnel are governed by their own service acts like the Air Force Act, 1950, the Army Act, 1950 and the Navy Act, 1957. Consequently, the commander of a tri-service establishment is not empowered to exercise disciplinary or administrative powers over personnel from other services. The MoD said the bill's enactment will have "tangible benefits" such as maintenance of effective discipline in inter-services organisations, no requirement to revert personnel under disciplinary proceedings to their parent service, expeditious disposal of indiscipline cases, and saving of public money and time by avoiding multiple proceedings.

Miffed, Rajnath moves to back seat for speech

New Delhi: Defence minister Rajnath Singh on Friday made a surprise move as he chose one of the back seats instead of his designated one in the front row for his brief speech while moving the Inter-Services Organisations (Command, Control and Discipline) Bill, which was passed by Lok Sabha with a voice vote, reports Akhilesh Singh. Sources said that the minister took the back seat as "political satyagraha" to mark his protest against opposition party members trooping into the well, shouting slogans and waving placards while he was speaking on the bill.

While opposition MPs were shouting slogans and displaying placards, Singh took the chair's permission to speak from one of the seats in the back benches. BJP MP Rajendra Agarwal was presiding over the session and expressed regret.
