

Baba Siddique murder: HC grants bail to accused

Express News Service
Mumbai, February 9

THE BOMBAY High Court Monday granted bail to Akash-deep Karaj Singh, one of the accused in the murder of former minister and NCP leader Baba Siddique. Singh was arrested in November 2024 from a border village in Punjab.

Baba Siddique was shot dead on October 12, 2024, outside the office of his son and former MLA Zeeshan Siddique in Bandra (East) by three assailants. Singh approached the Bombay High Court after a sessions court rejected his bail plea on July 19, 2025.

This is the first bail granted to any accused in the Baba Siddique murder case.

"Undoubtedly, the acts committed by the Organised Crime Syndicate, alleged to be headed by Bishnoi brothers, are serious offences. The provisions of the MCOCA are thus invoked. However, on examination of the material relied upon by the prosecution, qua the present applicant and taking the material against the applicant as it is, without considering the defence of the applicant, I am unable to form an opinion that there are reasonable grounds, at this stage, for believing that the accusations against the applicant of commission of the offence under the MCOCA are prima facie true," the HC noted in its order.

A single-judge bench of Justice Neela K Gokhale granted him bail with several conditions. Singh must report to the Mumbai police every alternate Monday, cannot leave Maharashtra or the country without the trial court's permission, furnish a personal bond of Rs 1 lakh along with local sureties of the same amount, deposit his passport, attend trial dates unless exempted by the court and share his contact details with the investigating officer, according to the court.

The court clarified that the bail order, issued with "stringent conditions," applies only to Singh.

UK doctor detained at airport: HC to hear plea on Feb 17

Express News Service
Mumbai, February 9

THE BOMBAY High Court on Monday said that it will hear on February 17 a plea by a UK-based doctor and YouTuber Sangram Patil challenging an FIR and Look Out Circular (LOC) issued against him for allegedly posting objectionable content against BJP leaders on social media.

As the matter listed before Justice Ashwin D Bhobe of the high court could not be taken up due to paucity of time, advocate

Ujjwalkumar Chavhan representing Patil sought urgent hearing citing that UK's citizen's job was at stake due to state action. The judge said he will "make an endeavour" to hear the matter on February 17, a date mutually agreed by the petitioner and the lawyer representing Mumbai Police. The police, in its affidavit in response to the plea had claimed that probe against Patil was at "critical stage" and "the possibility of an organised effort to malign constitutional authority cannot be ruled out."
